

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 396 without my signature.

This bill seeks to create a commission to study issues relating to civil filing fees. The Judicial Council already retains the authority to conduct this study and make recommendations to the Legislature. I encourage the Judicial Council to continue their progress in reforming the civil filing fee system.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger